GROUP TOURS IN THE BRYN ATHYN HISTORIC DISTRICT

VISIT MONTGOMERY COUNTY'S MOST UNIQUE ARCHITECTURE

Located in Montgomery County just minutes from Bucks County and Philadelphia, the Bryn Athyn Historic District includes three National Historic Landmarks recognized for their remarkable architecture and craftsmanship: Cairnwood Estate, Glencairn Museum, and Bryn Athyn Cathedral.

Bryn Athyn was founded as a religious community in the late 19th century by members of a Christian denomination known as the New Church, inspired by the teachings of Emanuel Swedenborg. Today, the Historic District is open for tours which showcase the unique interiors and award-winning grounds and gardens.

The Bryn Athyn Historic District does not have an on-site restaurant. However, the Cairnwood Estate Garden House provides a quaint space for up to 40 people to enjoy boxed lunches or platters delivered by the local vendor of your choice. For groups of 10 or more, a $4 per person custodial fee reserves the Garden House and includes setup and cleanup. There are also several restaurants located nearby for visitors wishing to dine off-site. Our staff will help coordinate the details of your itinerary.

Please be aware that parts of Cairnwood Estate and Glencairn Museum included in the tours are not wheelchair or walker accessible. Some accommodations are possible with advance notice.

Cairnwood Estate

Completed in 1895 during America's Gilded Age, Cairnwood was designed for industrialist John Pitcairn and his wife Gertrude. It is the only existing Beaux-Arts-style home in Pennsylvania designed by the New York firm Carrère and Hastings. History Tours explore this 19th-century country estate including the private chapel, servants' quarters, Garden House, and Carriage House collections.
